Chapter 1 Introduction	1
1. Problem statement	1
2. Research objectives and methods	1
3. Definitions	2
3.1. Animal welfare.....	2
3.2. Welfare risk weighting.....	3
3.3. Minimum ANI.....	4
3.4. AMANI score.....	4
4. Legislative standards to ensure animal welfare for pigs and cattle.....	5
4.1. European cross compliance standards.....	5
4.2. National standards in Germany.....	7
4.3. National standards in Austria.....	8
5. Consideration of animal welfare in farm certification schemes	9
5.1. Classification of farm certification schemes	9
5.2. Organic farm certification schemes	11
6. Methodological background: Integrated farm animal welfare evaluation methods.....	12
6.1. Categories of welfare parameters and evaluation approaches	13
6.2. “Single” measure approaches.....	15
6.3. Evaluations considering contributing measures.....	16
6.4. Multidimensional evaluations	17
6.5. General limitation of multidimensional animal welfare assessments	22
7. Outline of the thesis	24
References.....	25
Chapter 2 Evaluation of minimum animal welfare conditions in national standards and farm certification schemes for pig fattening	43
1. Introduction.....	43
2. A framework to evaluate animal welfare.....	45
3. Methodology and data of the study.....	48
3.1. Methodology	48
3.2. Data	50
3.2.1. Farm certification schemes	50
3.2.2. Data on farm numbers and herd sizes	50
3.2.3. On-farm assessments	51
4. Results and discussion	51

4.1. Inventory of standards and clustering to ANI groups	51
4.2. Overlap between legislative level and farm certification standards.....	52
4.2.1. Austria.....	52
4.2.2. Germany	53
4.2.3. Comparisons of calculated minimum ANIs with on-farm assessments in Austria.....	54
4.3. Extrapolation of calculated animal welfare levels into the full farm population	55
4.3.1. Conventional farms.....	56
4.3.2. Organic farms	56
5. Conclusions.....	57
References.....	58

Chapter 3 Animal welfare on the farm: Legislation, certification standards and assessment frameworks.....64

1. Introduction.....	64
2. Reference frameworks to evaluate overall animal welfare.....	67
3. Methodology and data of the study.....	71
3.1. Methodology of the animal welfare assessment	71
3.2. Data	73
3.2.1. Farm certification schemes	73
3.2.2. On-farm assessments	73
4. Results and discussion	73
4.1. Inventory of standards and clustering to ANI groups	73
4.2. Overlap between legislative level and farm certification standards.....	75
4.2.1. Standards for calves.....	75
4.2.2. Standards for adult cattle	77
4.2.3. Comparisons of calculated minimum ANIs with on-farm assessments in Austria.....	79
4.2.4. Review of the results in the context of reference frameworks.....	82
5. Conclusions.....	85
References.....	86

Chapter 4 Cross compliance and private farm certification schemes: Participation, compliance and synergies at farm level.....92

1. Introduction.....	92
2. The relationship of public and private standards	95
2.1. Standards as laid out by cross compliance regulations	95

2.2. Relationship of CC with national law	96
2.3. Standards as defined by farm certification schemes	96
2.4. Conclusions on the relationship between CC and FCS standards.....	97
3. Model of farm decision making when facing cross compliance and farm certification system obligations	98
3.1. A model of joint participation	98
3.1.1. Case 0 – General case: Definition of optimal farm production programme when no standards exist	99
3.1.2. Case 1 – National law	100
3.1.3. Case 2 – Participation in the Single Payment Scheme	102
3.1.4. Case 3 – Participation only in FCS and not in Single Payment Scheme	104
3.1.5. Case 4 – Participation in both: SPS and FCS	106
3.2. Comparison of solutions and hypotheses	107
3.2.1. Participation choice.....	108
3.2.2. Degree of compliance	108
4. Evidence from Austrian farm survey.....	108
4.1. Farm survey overview.....	108
4.2. Farmer’s attitudes and behaviour towards CC and FCS	109
4.2.1. Attitude and knowledge about CC and FCS	109
4.2.2. Reasons for compliance and participation in CC and FCS.....	109
4.2.3. Decision on degree of compliance.....	110
4.2.4. Costs of compliance.....	110
4.2.5. Monitoring, detection and sanctions	111
4.2.6. Potential integration of the systems	112
4.3. Determinants of participation in FCS	112
5. Discussion of hypotheses.....	114
5.1. Participation choice.....	114
5.2. Decision about degree of compliance	115
6. Conclusions.....	116
References.....	117
